

I am opposed to any modification of the statute which would increase the possibility of unsolicited calls to my home or business. I received one on my business line as I wrote this comment despite my signing up for the 'no call' list last year.